WOMAN HAS AS MUCH SENSE AS BAR ROOM BUM

Pro Candidates Declare That Universal Suffrage Is Important; She Can Vote as Intelligently as the Men.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.
Gallup, N. M., Sept. 25.—Wet New Mexico gave the prohibition national campaigner friendly receptions today when they invaded the state for two meetings after closing the Arizona campaign with speeches at Flagstaff and Winslow. An hour's meeting was held at Gallup this afternoon, and the dry special went to Albuquerque for a night meeting. Batches will be visited tomorrow before Colorado is entered.

Gallup's meeting had a picturesque setting. In the center of the ring of spectators who circled about the rear platform of the train was the town sprinkling cart. At one end of it were several Navajo Indians, who are denied liquor by federal statute, garbed in their gay robes. At the other end was a spectator who having imbibed freely indulged the dry speeches with loud comments. Scattered in other parts of the ring were Mexicans, negroes, half a hundred school children dressed in white, and a small band of suffragists. Flanking the rim of the circle were several saloons.

Many miners were in the audience and Frank Hanly took occasion to criticize the manner in which the Adams-on eight-hour day bill was enacted.

"The prohibition party is for the eight-hour day," he said, "but it is for an eight-hour day that shall be won by the free action of justice in the heart of the American people and not by a bludgeon held as a threat in the city of Washington."

Landrith aroused applause at every stop today by declaring that universal suffrage was imminent. Women do not vote here.

"I believe a woman has as much sense as a bar-room bum, or as some of the colored persons who cannot read nor write when you northerners save the label," he said, "and when she gets the vote, good bye booze. If you want to have a drink five years from now, you'd better begin to lay it in."

No direct prohibition proposal will be voted on in New Mexico this fall, but the drys hope to bring the ques-

DEMOCRATS HAVE HOPES OF CARRYING NEBRASKA

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE.
Chicago, Sept. 25.—Congressman Scott Fergus, director of the organization bureau at western democratic headquarters, said today that reports received from Nebraska indicated that Wilson and Marshall may carry that state in November. A report received from Congressman Daniel C. Stevens, of Nebraska, reads in part:

"I have just finished a trip through the western end of my district, and find the Wilson sentiment is constantly growing."

Congressman Charles O. Lohrback writes:

"Everything looks very promising for President Wilson in Nebraska."

Chronic Dysentery.

"An old gentleman of this town who was almost at the point of death with chronic dysentery some time ago and had given up all hope of recovery was induced to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. One dose stopped the dysentery, and after taking a few more doses he was completely cured," writes J. L. Baer, West Manchester, Pa. "Many residents of Baer's Station can testify to the truth of the above and were aware of the old gentleman's condition." Obtainable everywhere.

PERSHING IS TO BE MADE MAJOR GENERAL SOON

Secretary Baker Announces That the Commander of the American Punitive Expedition Will Succeed Mills.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE.
Washington, Sept. 25.—Secretary Baker announced today that the president would nominate Brigadier General Pershing, commander of the American expeditionary forces in Mexico, to be a major general to fill the vacancy created by Major General Mills.

Colonel Eben Swift, of the general staff; Francis H. French, of the Twenty-first infantry; Edwin S. John Greble, of the Sixth field artillery; and Charles Treat, of the general staff, will become brigadier generals succeeding Brigadier Generals Pershing, who is promoted to major general, and Granger Adams, Montgomery McComb, and F. W. Shiley, who are to be retired. General Pershing's promotion does not affect his assignment as commander of the expeditionary force in Mexico.

Announcement of the promotions was made by Secretary Baker upon his return from Baltimore, where he talked over the situation with President Wilson. The secretary's recommendations were approved by the president, who will send the nominations to congress in December.

DETENTION OF POLAK BEING INVESTIGATED

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE.
Washington, Sept. 25.—Official state department sources today reported the seizure of the Dutch steamer Prins Hendrik by German warships, did not say on what charges. American removed from the vessel was being held. The department is investigating further.

Much significance is attached by officials to Germany's seizure of mail aboard the steamer. Some time ago Germany claimed the right to censor letters sent to the United States. The Atlantic convention, declaring the "inviolability" of such mail had been rendered inoperative by failure of several of the belligerent nations to ratify it, but more recently the practice apparently had been discontinued.

FIRE IS RAGING IN THE COLORADO BLACK FOREST

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO MORNING JOURNAL.
Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 25.—Edgar Payton left this afternoon with ten men for Eastonville, twenty-five miles northwest of here, in response to a summons from the forestry service. A fire is raging in the Black forest and the town of Eastonville is threatened. The loss of timber is already serious.

RAID OF VILLA ON CHIHUAHUA NOT IMPORTANT

Mexican Members of Joint Commission Treat the Matter Lightly; Americans Do Not View It Optimistically.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE.
New London, Conn., Sept. 25.—Additions to the already large mass of information regarding Mexico's internal conditions, were made at a conference of the Mexican-American joint commission today. The outstanding feature of the first meeting of the fourth week, however, was the repetition of the failure of the Mexican representatives to bring about an agreement on the withdrawal of the American troops.

The Mexicans produced reports calculated to show that the attack on Chihuahua by Villa forces was of no great importance. The reports discounted the likelihood that Villa would become a menace to peace along the border.

The American commissioners were in receipt of reports that placed the situation in a less optimistic light. Until all doubt is removed as to the ability of the Mexican army to control the situation along the border, and especially along the Chihuahua frontier, it appears improbable that the Americans will enter into an agreement for the withdrawal of General Pershing's army.

Mexican representatives today admitted the existence of typhus and other contagious diseases in many of the more important cities in Mexico.

TEXAS COUNTY VOTES WET, IS INDICATION

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE.
Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 25.—With approximately 9,000 of an estimated vote of 12,000 counted early tonight Tarrant county apparently had voted "wet" by a majority of 1,400 in today's local option election. A majority of the county precincts voted "dry" but Fort Worth piled up a big "wet" vote.

In Fort Worth, of 7,140 votes counted, 4,748 were recorded "wet."

Some Canadian Advice.

Efforts in the United States to expand the regular army are not meeting with any great success. The necessary laws have been enacted by congress, but the men do not come forward. A soldier's life is not very attractive under the present conditions. The average American man, for that matter, does not appear much to the citizen of any democratic country.

Neither is the experiment of calling upon the state militia for service along the Mexican border answering fully to expectations. The young fellows without dependents like it well enough for a while, as an experience and an adventure, but the men who have to leave their families or to sacrifice positions in the business world regard it as an imposition. They do not see why this burden should be placed upon them when other citizens are exempt.

At the same time it is noticeable that when a real war is in sight the American is ready enough. More of them are in the Canadian army than have volunteered to serve their own country since their troops were ordered to the southern frontier. There would be many thousands more of them enlisted here were it not for the operation of the neutrality laws.

The truth is that democracy, and especially a well fed democracy, will not consent to waste time in the half idle and almost wholly useless life that is a soldier's lot in peace time. A comparatively few can be found to do it, but the endeavor to keep a standing army of any size does not appeal to the people.

The United States must follow the British plan of establishing a large navy which will insure safety from invasion and also time for getting together an army when the need arises. All they require on land is a nucleus for training purposes and for extraordinary police work on occasion.

Preparing Alibi.

Columbus, N. M., Sept. 25.—Army intelligence agents are making an investigation of a report that adherents of Villa were here to secure information to prove that Villa was not at Columbus on March 5, but that the raid was led by Pablo Lopez, who was executed in Chihuahua City because of the alleged leadership at the Santa Ysabel massacre when eighteen Americans and other foreigners were massacred. In this connection it is reported that Villa is preparing a manifesto disclaiming responsibility for the Columbus raid and placing the blame on Lopez.

Funston Expresses Regrets.
Washington, Sept. 25.—Major General Funston advanced the war department today that he had ordered an expression of regret to the Mexican authorities for the action of Corporal Rogers, B troop, Texas Cavalry, in entering into Mexico with a patrol of seven men September 21, and had directed Colonel Hays, commanding in the Big Bend district, to try the corporal for disobeying orders. The patrol was fired on by Mexican soldiers and returned to the American side with a loss of one horse. No release for the corporal has been given.

Rumanian Peasantry Described

Washington, D. C.—A vivid picture of the Rumanian peasantry is presented in a communication to the National Geographical society from James Howard Gore.

"A Rumanian village looks its best in the spring. At Easter the cottages have been whitewashed and the doors and window frames freshly painted in bright colors. The thatched roof has been put in order, and in its entirety the cottage calls to mind the blackened country girls with their clustering strings of multicolored beads around their necks.

"While wheat is the great staple of this agricultural country, the soil is equally adapted to corn (maize) and would be called upon for greater crops if the demand should justify it. The climate is not so mild as might be expected from the low latitude of the land, it being the same as that of northern Italy. Coming under the influence of the Mediterranean on the west and the mountains to the north and east the kingdom is subject to the extremes of a sub-tropical summer and a winter of the Hungarian plains.

The Rumanian is not a tradesman, and his main interest lies in farming. Even the selling of the surplus grain usually takes place at his farm, to the itinerant buyers, for he seems to be wary of the town merchant, and rarely trusts himself to the wiles of the city, except on the occasion of the annual fair.

The higher classes in Rumania—the descendants of the Boyars, the landed aristocracy and the rich village owners—are the French language, preserving the Rumanian tongue for these cases where it is proscribed by law—in the parliament and in the law courts. As this restriction does not affect the women, those of higher rank take but little interest in the native melodious Rumanian and would not deign to write the least important note in the language.

"One of the economic weaknesses of Rumania arises from the fact that

GERMANY NOT WORRIED OVER LOSS OF ZEPES

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE.
Berlin, Sept. 25 (6 p. m., via London, Sept. 26, 2:50 a. m.)—The Berlin newspapers and public appear to accept philosophically the loss of two Zeppelins in the raid on England.

The Kreuz Zeitung discusses briefly the possibility that the British might be able to copy the Zeppelin from the airship they brought down which was not completely destroyed. It dismisses this, however, in view of the fact that France, which has long had possession of a completed Zeppelin, has never been able to duplicate it.

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get above four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon, apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. Do this tonight, and by morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.
